Oakland Daily Evening Tribune.

VOL. XXIX. OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, AUGUST 19, 1889. NO. [illegible]

A GIRL'S NAME.

Attacked by an Anonymous Writer.

A. DENISON ACCUSED BY THE MOTHER.

He Denies the Charges—G. Frank Smith's Statement — Interview With Miss Rowe's Mother.

"I suppose you are one of those reporters," said an angry lady to a TRIBUNE man this afternoon.

The lady in question was Mrs. Henry Rowe, residing on Pearl street, Alameda, and she is the distressed mother of Miss Edith Rowe whose fair fame has been assailed.

It was THE TRIBUNE reporter's intention to interview the young lady herself, but as she was not at home the mother submitted to a brief interview under protest.

"And you have come here to work up some more lies about my poor girl, have you?" continued Mrs. Rowe, her voice trembling with suppressed excitement.

"No, ma'am," replied the reporter. "I am the truthful and modest young man of THE TRIBUNE, and I simply desire to state the truth, and, if compatible with the facts, to vindicate your daughter's fame before the world?"

"Yes, that's all very fine," said Mrs. Rowe, with a sneer. "If you have no more conscience or manhood than that man [Denison, I think the less we say to you the better. I wish my husband were home. He could talk to you."

"Has your daughter been in the employ of G. Frank Smith, recently?"

"She has not. It is two years since she worked in his office. She has not worked anywhere during that time, but has lived quietly at home. Whenever she has gone away to visit friends we always knew where she went."

"Do you think there was any personal motive for the publication of the recent stories?"

"Yes, I do. I think Edith has been made the victim of a pair of rascals, and when they found they could not succeed to bring about her ruin they adopted this low, underhanded scheme."

"You have faith in your daughter's innocence, I suppose?"

"Of course I have. And some of these fellows will be made to suffer, too. Mr. Denison pretended all along to be such a friend to us, and then he goes to work to disgrace us. He says he had these statements a week before he printed them. If he was a friend why did he not let us know what threatened us?" And Mrs. Rowe shook her head ominously.

"Have you an infant child in the house?"

"No, sir. I wish you would find my husband and talk to him. I am afraid of you reporters."

"I should very much prefer to interview Miss Edith," suggested the reporter.

"Yes, I dare say you would. But you can't do it, you see. I don't want to talk any more. But please don't print any lies about this unfortunate affair."

The reporter promised entire truthfulness, and took his leave.

ADNA A. DENISON

Furnishes a Statement Concerning the Scandal.

Adna A. Denison furnishes the following statement:

In regard to a certain article published Sunday in Mr. Moffitt's paper I have simply this to say, that so far as any statement or implication of any improper conduct on my part, it is absolutely false. After the statements had appeared, in company with James A. Johnson, the attorney, and W. F. Burbank, I called at the residence of the young lady and she stated that she had been misrepresented in the Times, her language distorted and words put into her mouth which she never uttered. She also stated, as is verified by the witnesses, that in all my acquaintance with her I had never conducted myself in any manner unbecoming a gentleman.

The young lady's father, who was present, concurred in the expression.

The following statement of the interview is certified to by the gentlemen present.

Sunday afternoon, August 18th, in the presence of Attorney James A. Johnson, W. F. Burbank, and A. F. Denison, Edith Rowe stated that an article in the Morning Times of the same date was a gross misstatement of facts and that her language had been distorted to reflect upon the character of A. A. Denison, and that during his acquaintance with her there had never been anything in his conduct unbecoming a gentleman.

Henry Rowe, the father of the young lady, who was present, concurred in the statement that so far as he knew Mr. Denison had always deported himself as a gentleman at his house and in his relations to Miss Rowe.

The above is a correct statement.

W. F. BURBANK.
JAMES A. JOHNSON.

Mr. Denison was questioned by a TRIBUNE reporter as to whether or not he had furnished the story of Edith to the Post.

"You must think that I am very fresh at the newspaper business," he replied. "If you imagine that I shall tell you that."

"You have been publicly accused by the Times of having done the cruel deed, and therefore I consider it an open question and a fair one," retorted THE TRIBUNE man. "Freshness or no freshness cuts no figure in the case."

"Well, any information on that subject will have to come through the office of the Post, if it comes at all." And with that Mr. Denison turned haughtily away.

G. FRANK SMITH.

He Denies the Story so Far as He Is Concerned.

G. Frank Smith was found at his office in San Francisco this morning.

"I have not seen Miss Rowe for perhaps a year or more," said Mr. Smith, "and I can deny the story entirely. I have never had any intimate relations with Miss Rowe in any way, form or manner. I will tell you frankly all I know about the matter. About two years ago Miss Rowe came into my office and asked if I had any copying to do. I had a little and gave it to her. She took it home and did it satisfactorily. Once and perhaps twice after that I gave her some little work to do. I have never employed a young lady typewriter in my office. I can deny this story in every way. I have occasionally met Miss Rowe on the Oakland ferry boat and have ridden across the bay with her, but I have never taken her out to dinner or lunch anywhere. She was a very pretty, modest and intelligent young lady, and one whom I would not suspect of anything wrong and any man who would make improper propositions to her I would consider a villain, connected his name with the story. I am very sorry that my name was mixed up in this, because I am a man of family and it is very disagreeable to me."

RESCUING PRISONERS.

The Jurisdiction of Judge Laidlaw Questioned in His Own Court.

The northern part of San Pablo avenue is patrolled by Police Officer Tierney. Saturday evening he arrested a drunken man at the corner of Twenty-second street and San Pablo avenue. Two bystanders came to the assistance of the prisoner and one of them, John Halloran, dragged the drunken man from the officer. Jack Callaghan then wrested Halloran from the officer. Just then the patrol wagon arrived with Chief Tompkins on board. He quickly subdued Callaghan and put him into the wagon. Officer Aldrich chased after Halloran and caught him, but the drunk escaped.

This morning when the complaint accusing Halloran of rescuing a prisoner was called in the Police Court W. C. Chapman, defendant's attorney, moved to dismiss the complaint, on the grounds that the complaint is insufficient and that this court has no jurisdiction over the person of the defendant or the subject matter. The motion was denied by Judge Laidlaw and the case was set for trial tomorrow before a jury.

No complaint has been filed accusing Callaghan.

SHE WANTED TO DIE

Because Her Hubby No Longer Loves Her.

"My husban' no love me an' I want to die," sighed Teresa Juacamena, in the woman's cell of the City Prison, in answer to a TRIBUNE reporter's query, as to what her troubles might be.

Teresa is a fragile Portuguese woman, about 25 years of age. On Saturday she was wandering about in the vicinity of the Broad Gauge Ferry mole, and finally jumped off the trestle into the briny deep, about half way between the ferry pier and Long wharf.

A railway employe, who was near and saw the leap, but whose name the reporter could not learn, descended the trestle stringers and pulled the woman out. She seemed perfectly willing to be rescued after having gotten a thorough wetting.

She was placed on the next east bound local train and carried to Broadway, where the patrol wagon and Officer Barnett took her in charge. She was at once taken to the City Prison; her drenched clothing was taken off, she was wrapped up in a blanket and was locked up for safe keeping.

"Where does your husband live?" asked the reporter.

"At Golden Gate."

"What is his name?"

"Gaspard Juacamena," she replied hesitatingly.

"Does he abuse you?"

"Yes, he fight me an' call me bad names all da time. I no want to live."

"Who pulled you out of the water?"

"I pull myself out," she replied.

It is evident that her mind is somewhat unbalanced, and she will be held in confinement until her case is investigated.

MR. HATCH'S RIDE.

When He Returns He Finds the Gate Wired.

J. L. Hatch, formerly a minister, now a newspaper man, may be seen riding abroad on a handsome sorrel horse, a sombrero shading his snowy curls, and a duster protecting his garments. Mr. Hatch keeps his horse in a little stable in East Oakland, hired from Mrs. Humeston. The owner desired possession of the stable, but Mr. Hatch would not yield possession, saying he had paid rent until some day this week.

Yesterday Mr. Hatch enjoyed a ride, though the wind filled his eyes with dust. During his absence Mrs. Humeston wired the gate. When the cavalier returned he tried to release the wire with a bar, and while working Mrs. Humeston arrested him and turned him over to Officer Powers. He deposited $5 for bail, and this morning sat in the Police Court. The case was continued until to-morrow morning to file a complaint.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

Mary A. Sesler Still After Alexander Montgomery.

The case of Mary A. Sesler against Alexander Montgomery was called before Judge Gibson this morning. The plaintiff seeks to recover $5000 damages for defamation of character. It is claimed that while she was at Montgomery's house she heard the latter use hard language concerning her. The case was once tried in this county, the plaintiff recovering judgment for about $3,000. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and a new trial was granted the defendant. W. W. Allen represents the plaintiff and J. C. Martin appeared for the defendant. It was finally decided to set the case for trial on August 29, 1889. Miss Sesler was recently married, and has been residing at San Bernardino. It is stated that she is now well to do and proposes to fight Montgomery to the bitter end. M. M. Estee is also one of the attorneys for the defendant.

Probate Matters.

John L. Roundey has been appointed executor of the estate of Hannah Roundey, deceased.

James Gamble has been appointed executor of the estate of Emily J. Gamble, deceased, with bonds fixed at $2400.

Hannah Sweeney has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Edward Sweeney, deceased, with bonds fixed at $200.

Thomas Graber has been appointed to administer upon the estate of Charles Kriger, deceased.

United Presbyterians.

At the United Presbyterian Mission in California Hall yesterday Rev. Dr. Gibson, the Superintendent of Missions of the San Francisco Presbytery, preached a sermon of encouragement, at the close of which it was decided to hold a meeting on Wednesday evening at the Fairmont, the residence of John Burrows, on San Pablo and Eighteenth, to consider the question of organizing and continuing the Mission.

The President Is Ill.

There was to have been a meeting of the Woman's Sheltering Home Association this afternoon at the home on Franklin street, but owing to the illness of the President, Mrs. F. M. Smith, the meeting was postponed until such time as she shall recover sufficiently to attend.

Who Owns the Sidewalk?

Samuel Reed and William Reed, who maintained a pile of lumber on the sidewalk on Broadway near the corner of First street, this morning pleaded not guilty to a charge of obstructing the sidewalk and will be tried by Judge Laidlaw on Thursday.

Judgment Against Mrs. Hay.

Judge Greene this morning gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of W. H. Mills against Mrs. A. B. Hay. Mills was allowed $130 for rent due, and the lease of the defendant was declared forfeited.

Horse Wear.

An owner is wanted at the office of Chief of Police Tompkins for two bridles and a pair of blinds supposed to be stolen.

On the Mysterious Border.

The work of grading, curbing and macadamizing Kirkham street, between Fifth and Seventh streets, has been completed by the Oakland Paving Company at a cost of $1198.76, which is $1.09 per front foot.

"ACTIVE CHRISTIANITY."

Professor Crowhurst Speaks for Temperance.

The Gospel Temperance meeting yesterday afternoon in the First Methodist Church was specially interesting. Spirited music was led by Miss Kingdon, Miss Julia Wilson, and Rev. P. C. Chamberlain, and was joined in by the large audience. Mrs. R. R. Johnston presided and led the Scripture lesson from the words of Christ, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me." She spoke feelingly of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union ladies, whom she accompanied in their visit to the City Prison and its unfortunate inmates.

Professor Crowhurst, the well known lecturer, gave the address and defined temperance in Miss Frances E. Willard's words as "Active Christianity." He spoke most forcibly for the "cranks," whom he denominated as people who have laid aside selfishness and are heart and soul engaged in trying to save the people. He most earnestly urged all Christians to more thoroughly organize against the liquor traffic, when it might be swept away in one election. Rev. P. C. Chamberlain made a good speech against high license, well comparing the revenue derived from such a source with the disobedience of the Israelites in saving the best of the cattle for sacrifice, in which they would have profit when God had commanded their utter destruction. God has commanded the utter extinction of the saloons, but we will keep the best, the gilded saloons, and share the profits as a nation. God will visit us with wrath. Others spoke well, and Mrs. Eddy offered prayer. H. H. Matlock, a well known speaker, will address the meeting next Sunday afternoon.

AFTER THE CONSTABLES.

The Supervisors Investigate the Arresting of Cripples.

A Young Man Who Does Not Appreciate Being in "Chinese Alley" in the County Jail.

A committee from the Board of Supervisors on Saturday sent word to Jailer Woolsey of the County Jail to give them a list of the cripples who had been brought to the jail by constables and locked up on a charge of vagrancy. It is the intention of the committee to disallow the bills of the constables in these cases for fees.

Jailer Woolsey reported that a woman named Jane Foster had been brought to the jail by Deputy Constable Lawrence, and charged with vagrancy. She was suffering from two broken ribs and a broken shoulder blade, and had to be removed to the hospital.

Mary Rhodes, an old woman suffering from general debility was arrested by Constable Morris and locked up in the County Jail on a charge of vagrancy. While in jail she became very ill, and it was thought for a time that she would die.

Thomas Smith, a paralytic who can scarcely walk, was arrested by Deputy Constable Lamp on a charge of vagrancy. Saturday he was transferred to the Receiving Hospital and will be sent to the County Infirmary.

Deputy Constable Lamp arrested George Scott and brought him to the County Jail on a charge of vagrancy. Scott is a young man 20 years of age, well dressed and of pleasant appearance. He is quite indignant at being accused of being a vagrant. He states that he came from Los Angeles to this city in search of work. On Friday he worked a half a day, and after his work was done he had no money and no place to sleep. Fearing arrest if he slept in a barn in the city he went outside the city limits and went to sleep in a haystack. Lamp had watched him, and when opportunity offered itself he swooped down upon the unlucky young man like a vampire and lugged him off to prison. He was simply playing for fees. Scott is anxious to have a trial, in order that he may inform the Judge of the circumstances surrounding his case. He says he was never before in jail, and therefore does not appreciate being locked up in "Chinese alley" in the County Jail. The Supervisors are indignant at the actions of the constables in these cases, and there will be some lively cutting of bills.

Drank Too Much Water.

A young man named Domingo Augustus, who resided on Eighteenth avenue, near Fourteenth street, in East Oakland, died under peculiar circumstances on Saturday night. For some time past the young man, who was only 16 years of age, was in the employ of Tum Suden & Waite. On Friday he was engaged in storing hay in a warehouse, and became overheated and drank large quantities of cold water to quench his thirst. When he returned home he complained of severe pains in the region of the stomach. Dr. Fish was summoned, but was unable to give the young man any relief, and he died of inflammation of the bowels superinduced by the excessive drinking of water. The funeral took place from his residence today at 10 A. M.

An Absurd Story.

The story circulated about Dr. Almond Lull of Berkeley to the effect that he had become entangled with two young women in the East turns out to be in the main the offspring of a Chicago reporter's brain. Dr. Lull was accompanied as far as Chicago by two young women from his old home in New Hampshire. It was their intention to come to California, and Dr. Lull had kindly consented to care for them on the journey. At Chicago, however, one of the girls decided to return home, and the other concluded to remain in Chicago. Dr. Lull did not know what to do in the matter, and therefore laid the case before the police authorities. He arrived at Berkeley last Saturday.

A Child's Sudden Death.

The death of eleven-year-old Emelie Mohr yesterday was strange in nature and totally unexpected. The little one was recovering from a severe attack of diphtheria and was able to move about the house. Yesterday, however, while walking about, she suddenly fell dead. The attending physician, Dr. Mouser, believes that the severe attack of diphtheria caused a falling of the heart, which resulted in death. The little one resided with her parents at 1919 Market street.

Sick at the Wrong Time.

John W. Tompkins, Chief of Police, was attacked by lumbago yesterday and today is confined to his residence. Mr. Tompkins is subject to attacks of this disease, and usually is ill for a week before the annoying pains can be controlled. During his illness or absence the police force is under the control of Senior Captain Wilson.

Was He Incompetent?

Mary Ann Curley has replied to the complaint of her uncle, Francis Jones, who accuses her of sharp practice and defrauding him out of his property. Miss Curley asserts that when her uncle deeded to her the property he was not mentally incompetent as charged.

Jumped From a Train.

James Reed, who resides on Folsom street in San Francisco, jumped from the local train at Clinton station last night and was thrown violently to the ground. At the Receiving Hospital a scalp wound about five inches in length was dressed.

To Recover a Judgment.

Thomas A. McGowan has sued P. A. Kidd and E. C. Tully to recover $3100 on a judgment.

TAPPAN'S STEER.

The Citation Against the Butchers Dismissed.

R. B. Tappan brought suit against a farmer near Haywards a short time since, and attached his property. The farmer was the owner of a lively steer, and an old man named F. D. Arff was placed as keeper over the animal. One afternoon Arff went into the house and during his absence two butchers on horseback drove the steer off. Arff appeared on the scene just in time to see the animal disappearing down the road, and he called upon the butchers to halt, but they heeded not. A lively chase ensued, but the butchers came out victorious and kept the steer. When they found that they had been cited to appear and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court they very soon returned the steer to the keeper and appeared in court this morning making the most abject apologies. Attorney Tappan stated that as the men had acknowledged that they had violated the law he was willing that the citation should be dismissed and it was so ordered.

NINA RAN AWAY.

She Was Afraid of Rocks From W. J. Dingee's Quarry.

I. M. Clark and his daughter Nina Clark are endeavoring to compel W. J. Dingee to cease blasting rocks at his quarry north of Oakland. Mr. Clark owns a house near the quarry and avers that his life and the lives of his family are endangered by the acts of the defendant and he wants an order of court restraining Dingee from blasting at the quarry. Mr. Dingee says that if such an order is made it will virtually destroy his property. This morning Nina Clark filed an affidavit in Judge Ellsworth's court in which she says that it is true that recently persons have been blasting at Dingee's quarry. She avers that when the men get ready to blast they come to the house and warn the occupants and they are compelled to leave the house and seek a place of safety. The affiant avers that on more than one occasion she has ran away from the house in order to avoid being injured by falling rocks. Mr. Dingee will reply to the affidavit in a few days.

HIS PROPS.

Deputy Benjamin's Assessable Wealth by Items.

His Property Appears to Be Largely Personal to Himself, and Sometimes to Others.

Deputy Street Superintendent Ed. H. Benjamin was called upon by a Deputy County Assessor the other day to give an account of his personal property in order that he might be taxed. The Best Map.

Livermore Herald.

The Tribune Publishing Company has issued the best map of Alameda county yet published, and for accuracy and conciseness of detail, and plainness of lining and print, it is without exception, the best county map we ever saw. It is printed on very white paper, and left uncolored. Its fidelity to detail is extraordinary, and is nowhere better displayed than in the vicinity of Livermore. Every subdivision, however small, is shown, and wherever possible, the name of the present owner appears thereon. All the later additions of our town are shown with scrupulous exactness.

He Wants to Obey.

Frank Fisher was notified by the Plumbing Inspector to connect his premises on East Twelfth street near Twenty-third avenue with the sewer. He has petitioned the City Council to order an ironstone pipe sewer in the street for a distance of 200 feet east of Twenty-third avenue and thence in Twenty-third avenue to Park avenue sewer.

At the University.

The Young Men's Christian Association of the University of California have prepared plans for a $50,000 building to be located near the Dana street entrance to the campus.

Settling With Creditors.

Sol Greenhood, the dry goods merchant on Broadway who recently failed, has settled with his creditors for 40 cents on the dollar.

IT WAS A MISTAKE.

An Interesting Argument in a Damage Suit.

John Landon recently brought suit against the Southern Pacific Company to recover $50,000 damages. This morning the case came up for hearing on the motion of Attorneys Martin and Moore, who desired to have the summons quashed. Attorney Smith wanted to amend his summons and filed an affidavit in which he said that in issuing the summons the Clerk by inadvertence omitted to insert therein a notice to the effect that if the defendant failed to appear the plaintiff would cause their default to be entered and would take judgment for the sum of $50,000.

George Sturtevant, a deputy clerk, in an affidavit, set forth that Attorney Smith had asked him to write and sign the summons in the cause. He told him he did not do that work, but that Mr. Edgar was the deputy clerk who performed that duty. Smith said he was in a hurry and had but a short time, and thereupon Sturtevant told Smith to write it and he would sign and seal it. Sturtevant says that he filed the blank summons solely at the dictation of Mr. Smith. The court took the matter under advisement.

HIGH ESTIMATES.

Careful Pruning Before a Satisfactory Tax Levy Can Be Made.

Estimates of Heads of Departments of the City May Be Reduced One Fourth.

The estimated needs of the city for the present fiscal year made by the departments and sent to the Auditor aggregate $819,583 09.

Duplications have been subtracted and plain omissions have been added by the Auditor, who has also added to the department estimates the Sinking Fund required by law and the yearly interest on the bonded debt.

The estimated income from sources other than direct tax is $228,931 77.

The cash in the Treasury at the first of the fiscal year was $125,161 36. The total of these two amounts is $354,093.13.

Deducting this from the total of estimates of the departments the remainder is $465,437 86. If this sum were to be raised the tax levy would be $1 20.

The estimates of the departments, however, are subject to revision, first by the Auditor and then by the City Council. While the desire of the chiefs of departments for liberal appropriations to maintain and increase the efficiency of the several divisions under their charge is commendable, yet they have asked for more money than the city can afford to allow them. There is no reason to vary from the prediction of a tax levy of 95 cents.

If a tax levy increase of $1 10 or $1 15 should be made this year the property owners would certainly defeat the proposed issue of bonds, because property owners would fear the increased levy of next year for interest and sinking fund.

HYER'S HOMESTEAD.

The Creek Pirate Wants a Share of H[illegible]er's Estate.

Carl Hyer, the young man who gained some distinction as a creek pirate, and was arrested for burglary, is making matters very interesting for his uncle, who is executor of the estate of the young man's father, B. W. Hyer. The estate has been in probate for about ten years, and a few days ago the uncle filed his final account and asked to be discharged from his trust. Young Hyer came in with objections to his uncle's discharge. The account shows that there is nothing left in the estate and consequently Young Hyer is entitled to receive nothing. This claim, however, he disputes, and avers in his petition that he is entitled to a homestead not to exceed in value the sum of $5000, whether or not the debts of the estate be paid. The question is being argued before Judge Greene this afternoon.

Trees in the Way.

Hiram Tubbs objects to the proposed reduction in the width of the sidewalks of East Twelfth street, deeming the width now none too great, and that the change would cause destruction of fine shade trees.

Miss Benfey.

Concerning Miss Benfey, who will give a recital of "Elaine" on Friday night at the Oakland Theater, the New York Journalist says: "She possesses a marvelously sweet and melodious voice, has a mobile countenance, and uses expressive gestures, whilst her methods are worthy of a Cushman."

An Insolvent's Discharge.

W. C. Wright, an insolvent debtor, has been granted his final discharge.

A YOUTHFUL HORSETHIEF.

A Little Lad in Whom No One Seems to Take an Interest.

A little boy, whose head scarcely came over the railing in the prisoner's dock, was before Judge Ellsworth this morning to answer to a charge of horse stealing. The boy is scarcely 12 years of age, and when called upon this morning to plead to the charge in the information, he scarcely knew what to say. He would admit, however, that his true name is Harry McMenomy, but avers that he is not guilty of grand larceny. The court appointed Frederick E. Whitney to defend the lad, and he was given two days in which to enter his plea. No one seems to take an interest in the case of the youth and he appears to be without friends. The District Attorney refuses to dismiss the charge, because he says that the boy will not tell what has become of the horse. It is stated that the animal is still missing, and the prisoner refuses to give any light on the subject.

THE MAJOR SUED.

A Plumber Wants Him to Pay for His Services.

Major V. W. Gaskill and his wife, Annie, with O. E. Moore, are made the defendants in a suit brought in the Superior Court by Toney Silva, who seeks to recover $30 on a mechanic's lien and $100 for counsel fees. When Mr. Gaskill erected his two new cottages on Twenty-seventh street, near West, he employed O. E. Moore as contractor, and Toney Silva was employed to do the plumbing on the houses. He says that he has not been paid for his work, and hence the suit.

—One hundred and fifty-three teachers in the public schools.

—Ten public squares, worth more than half a million dollars.

—A city hall too small to accommodate the officers of the city.

—Twenty-one men engaged in sprinkling macadamized roadways.

—Two and one quarter miles of cable roads and other roads building.

—Seventy-six and a half miles of roadway paved with macadam.

—Forty police alarm boxes. Twenty more will soon be placed in position.

—A population of 65,000, according to the estimate of the Health Officer.

—A Fire Department intelligently managed, but not thoroughly equipped.

—Sixteen and two-thirds miles of steam railroad passing through the city.

—Fourteen public school buildings, including the High School, now rebuilding.

—Eight hundred and twenty gas lamps and twenty-six electric lights paid for by the city.

—A completely equipped observatory, the gift of the late A. Chabot to the school department.

—A death rate lower than any other city in the world, though deaths from zymotic diseases are unnecessarily frequent.

—Seventeen sets of telephones. The transmitters and the receivers are hired and the remainder of the apparatus belongs to the city.

—An area of 9953 acres, or fourteen square miles, exclusive of the annexed district, of which 1883 acres are inland and 1180 acres are tide land.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Richard Meining of Duluth is spending a few weeks in Oakland, the guest of H. L. Adams.

—State Printer Harlow of Nevada is visiting his brother, Under Sheriff Harlow of Alameda county.

—Dr. L. P. Hess and Dr. B. A. Rabe have received their appointments as United States Pension Examiners. Both gentlemen are veterans. Dr. Hess is Surgeon of Lyon Post, No. 8, and Dr. Rabe of Appomattox Post, No. 50, G. A. R.

—At the First Congregational Church last evening Sydenham Smith, an English lawyer who has spent his life in India and is President of the Y. M. C. A. at Poona, in that country, spoke on "Native and Christian Life in India." He illustrated his address by an exhibition of native costumes, displayed upon the young people of the congregation.

—Colonel Edward C. Robinson returned from Plumas county a few days ago, where he successfully prevented the reopening of an important estate that had been settled.

—Rev. I. M. Merlin-jones of Temescal is gradually recovering from his recent injuries, and was up for the first time yesterday. He was thrown from his buggy about three weeks ago while returning from Walnut Grove, where he had been preaching.

—It was rumored about the streets of Berkeley yesterday that R. G. Lewis, who was recently arrested on a charge of insanity, had left on Saturday for the City of Mexico. He has certainly left Berkeley, and his flight astonished many people, some of them friends, who can assign no cause for his departure.

—John Allen, for many years janitor of the Prescott school, has resigned his position to study law. As the salary of the position is $100 a month, there are a number of applicants for the position.

—Captain Rosewell of Berkeley, with his wife, will depart for Milwaukee this afternoon. He will join Department Commander Guard and staff of the Grand Army at Sacramento.

Virginia in Oakland.

H. C. Wyatt's English Opera Company of forty-six singers will produce at the Oakland Theater this evening, Virginia, and tomorrow evening Iolanthe. The prima donna is Mrs. Fadelford, a well known singer, and W. F. Rochester, a favorite at the San Francisco Tivoli, is a prominent member of the company. This company has just come north from Los Angeles, and the papers of that city commend the performance.

A Coincident Departure.

It is rumored in journalistic circles that W. Churchill and Mrs. Jewell's Clough have gone East to enjoy each other's society unmolested by the tongues of gossip and the threats of certain injured parties connected with the recent trouble in the Clough family. It is, however, merely a rumor, and all that is known is that the two disappeared from their friends and acquaintances about the same time.

COUNTY BUSINESS,

The Blasting at the City Wharf.

THE COURT HOUSE WALLS CRACKED,

"The Tribune" Made the Official Paper—Repairs of Important Bridges Ordered—Miscellaneous.

The Board of Supervisors met in regular session this morning. All the members were present, and before getting down to business of importance the indigents were examined and granted aid in accordance with the nature of their wants.

Supervisor Martin reported that the bridge over the creek at High street was in a very bad condition, and requires replanking and strengthening. On motion the matter of repairs was left to Supervisor Martin, with power to act.

The Judiciary Committee reported that they had prepared a schedule of rates to be paid for printing the different county blanks and reports.

B. D. Boswell, overseer of the Ocean View Road district, was granted sixty days leave of absence from August 19th.

The following resolution introduced by Supervisor Martin was then adopted:

WHEREAS, It is necessary and expedient that some newspaper be designated in which all county advertising shall appear in order that the public may know where to look for advertisements calling for bids for doing the various things advertised for by the county, the official report of proceedings of the board, etc., therefore be it

Resolved, That THE OAKLAND DAILY EVENING TRIBUNE be and the same is hereby designated as such paper in which shall appear all county advertising which emanates from or which is under the control of this board.

Dr. Shirk of the County Infirmary presented a requisition for a barrel of whisky for the Infirmary. The requisition was referred to the Hospital Committee.

The County Tax Collector presented a requisition for supplies, which was granted.

The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The contracts for supplying groceries, dry goods, and meats to the County Infirmary will expire on the 7th day of September next; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Board be and he is hereby directed to insert the customary advertisement in THE OAKLAND DAILY EVENING TRIBUNE for bids for furnishing said supplies to said institution for one year. Bids to be received up to 12 o'clock noon of Monday, September 2, 1889, and to be accompanied by a deposit of $300.

WHEREAS, The contracts for supplying fuel to the Court House, Jail, Receiving Hospital and Hall of Records in Oakland and the County Hospital near San Leandro will expire on the 17th day of September, 1889, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Clerk be and he is hereby directed to insert the customary advertisement for ten days in THE OAKLAND DAILY EVENING TRIBUNE for bids for supplying the same for one year.

Bids to be received up to 12 o'clock noon of Monday, September 2d, 1889, and to be accompanied by a deposit of $200. Said advertisement to call for "Wellington coal" instead of "Original Wellington" as formerly.

A requisition from the Superintendent of the County Infirmary for dishes and silverware for his private dining room was then allowed.

The bond of Charles E. Lloyd and C. A. Warren in the sum of $2000 for the faithful performance of the work of changing the grade of Broadway from the charter line of the city to Temescal creek was returned to the bondsmen for correction, as the affidavit was dated in Alameda county and sworn to before a notary in San Francisco.

Supervisor Brown called attention to several large cracks in the walls of the Court House, supposed to have been caused by the heavy blasts fired in the creek by the dredging company, and, on motion, the matter was referred to the Building Committee, in conjunction with the District and City Attorney.

Supervisor Pelonze then made a motion that contractor Perine go on with the work of paving between the rails on the Webster street bridge at the same price as called for by the other portions of the bridge, said costs to be assessed to the railroad company using the bridge. Adopted.

Bids were then opened for the replanking of the Alvarado long bridge, in accordance with the plans and specifications passed at the last meeting. The bids received were as follows: B. K. Allen, $2350; F. B. Granger, $1723; A. K. Bell, $2424 75; Rupert Rockwell, $1875; J. G. Mattos Sr., $2348 59; Rettig & Dowling, $2042 50; Robert Smilie $2140 20; William McDonald, $1 10 per lineal foot; W. H. Healy & Co., $2355; San Francisco Bridge Company, $2095.

The board then took a recess to consider the bids, after which the bid of F. B. Granger was accepted, he being the lowest bidder, and the District Attorney was instructed to draw up the necessary contract and bonds.

The board then adjourned to August 26th. No bills were allowed.

He Lives High.

Livermore Herald.

F. Bocqueraz of Oakland, who was formerly interested in wine making in this valley, is in Paris. A. A. Gilbert received a long letter from him recently, in which he described at length many of the curious scenes he has witnessed. He enclosed a restaurant bill for a dinner for seven persons amounting to $42. He said he could get equally as good a meal in San Francisco for much less money.

Broke a Pane.

A number of large rolls of carpet were piled up in the window of McGovern & Cahill, 1000 Broadway, this forenoon, and being quite heavy the boards underneath gave way, throwing the carpets against a large pane of plate glass, which was broken. The pane is valued at $150. The carpet was not damaged as it fell to the floor on the inside of the store.

Remember Glencoe.

Calvin B. MacDonald, a well known temperance advocate and journalist, will be tendered a benefit next Thursday evening at the Congregational Church by the ladies of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mr. Macdonald will deliver a lecture on the occasion.

Will Reorganize.

A reorganization of the League of Freedom is contemplated. The late Joseph Dieves was its president, and his successor will be elected at the next meeting. Max Marcuse will not accept the secretaryship in the future.

A Barn Burned.

A barn belonging to B. B. Darilla at Temescal, was destroyed by fire last Saturday. A quantity of hay, a saddle and harness were consumed by the flames.

LETTER LIST.

OAKLAND, Alameda County, Aug. 1 1889. Weekly list of letters remaining in the Postoffice. These [illegible] held two weeks from the date of this advertisement [illegible] are then sent to the Dead Letter Office. (Official.)

Blood Poison

Is very liable to follow contact of the hands or face with what is known as poison ivy, especially in hot weather or if the body is perspiring freely. The trouble may subside for a time, only to appear in aggravated form when opportunity offers. The great purifying powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla thoroughly eradicate every trace of poison from the blood, as the cures it has accomplished conclusively show. It also cures scrofula, salt rheum and all other affections arising from impure or poisoned blood.

CHURCH AND STATE

Render Unto Cæsar the Things That are Cæsar's.

MR. WENDTE TO FATHER GLEESON.

The Attitude of the Catholic Church—Increase of Church Property—Taxation.

The Rev. Charles W. Wendte of the Unitarian Church of this city preached a sermon yesterday on "The American Doctrine of State and Church." Below will be found a synopsis and extracts from the discourse:

In beginning the address he said that it was prompted by recent attacks upon the American State and the American public school as "godless and immoral," made by Roman Catholic prelates and certain unwise Protestants. The discourse of Rev. Father Gleeson on the occasion of dedicating the new St. Mary's College in Oakland was referred to as frank and impersonal in tone, and he should be equally courteous while opposing its fundamental propositions and later on in this series of discourses trying to show the fallacy of its proofs and illustrations.

If we oppose Rome let it be with the weapons, light, truth, reason, fact, and history, not personalities and denunciation. Not to win popular applause, but to advance the truth and the right, which is God's kingdom on earth.

"There are two institutions in human society whose adjustment of their mutual relations has been the source of more agitation and strife than any other known in history. They are the State and the church."

He then reviewed the history of European civilization in the earlier eras of Christianity and the supremacy of the Church of Rome. Since the time of Pope Gregory VII the Roman Catholic Church has taught that there can be no sovereign political authority beyond its limits fixed by the ecclesiastical power. * * * The Encyclical and Syllabus of Pius IX says: "All advocates of free speech, all who maintain the liberty of the press, all who assert the liberty of conscience and of religious worship, let them be anathema." Such is the doctrine of the Church of Rome as announced by its highest competent tribunal.

It would be easy to find it echoed in many recent utterances of her clergy. It is only a few years since that Bishop Gilmour of Cleveland laid down in a pastoral letter to his diocese the Catholic philosophy of government in the following words: "Nationalities must be made subordinate to religion. We must learn that we are Catholics first and citizens next. Catholicism teaches that God is above man, the Church above the State." This is certainly explicit and emphatic enough. So Cardinal Newman, in his controversy with Mr. Gladstone, maintained that "the British ministers ought to apply to Rome to learn the civil duties of British subjects and that no pledge from Catholics was of any value to which Rome was not a party." Apply this principle to our American political life, and it means simply this—that no Roman Catholic citizen can rightly take an oath of allegiance without the consent of Rome, or, in other words that Rome is a higher authority in American affairs than the Republic itself. It would be easy to multiply such testimonies by quoting the utterances of the minor clergy, and from the pages of Catholic books and newspapers. These all prove that the theocratic doctrine of the Church over the State is believed and upheld by a large, well organized and powerful body among us, and only awaits its opportunity to become an open and aggressive enemy to our free institutions.

I believe it to be highly improbable that, in a thinking age and a free land, like ours, the Roman Catholic theory will ever again become the basis of a new order of society. But it may yet assert a great disturbing influence in our young community as it does to-day in the Old World.

In regard to so called schismatics and heretics a recent explicit declaration of the Papal syllabus says: "All are condemned who maintain that the Roman Church may not employ force." Should the opportunity come again to the Church could there be any doubt as to who were the heretics and schismatics referred to or that she would refuse to employ the terrors of the law as well as her spiritual authority to carry out her decrees?

The theocratic doctrine is not dead, but sleeping, and I still contains within it the possibility of a vast and dangerous influence on our body politic. The general character and tendency of this theory are, however, so well known that I may pass to consider briefly a second legal relation which may exist between the civil and ecclesiastical power: namely, a union of church and state under one head.

The most perfect example of which system we find in Russia, where the Emperor is also the spiritual head of the Greek Church. In a modified form, this theory underlies the established or state church of England, and in a still more modified form the privileged or Evangelical Church of Germany, whose head, the Emperor, governs through a council or synod whose members he himself appoints. I cannot dwell on this system at present; nor is it necessary, for it is already on the wane, and may be considered as only an intermediate step between the theocracy of Rome and that entire separation of the church and State which is the characteristic doctrine of our American Republic.

Let us examine this American theory more closely. The State we may define as social man organized for the purpose of civil government. The church is social man organized for worship and religious nurture. Thus, in theory, each has its own peculiar functions, and is assigned a distinct sphere for their exercise. Each is to respect the other's rights, and not to interfere with the other's operations. This is the theoretical, the ideal conception of the relations between church and State; and this is generally conceded to be the American doctrine on this subject.

But this is a very mistaken view of their mutual relations, and by no means the one which actually obtains in American society. For there cannot be any such entire separation and yet coexistence of these two powers. In their practical working, church and State constantly interfere with one another, and it is often very difficult to say which is the sphere of each. For example, the church represents the spiritual interests; but she has temporal possessions which bring her within the laws and ordinances of the State. The church, indeed, strenuously denies that the State has any right to interfere with her property arrangements, no matter how much they affect the welfare of the community. This is what the Roman Catholic Church says today to the American State, as she heaps up millions on millions of property exempt from taxation, held absolutely by one person, the bishop, and by him only as the representative of a foreign ruler; thus forming a continuous and dangerous monopoly in our midst. The American State will sooner or later have to interfere to regulate this great and growing evil, as the governments of Europe have regulated it; but the moment she attempts to do so the cry of the church will be: "Hands off! you are transcending your sphere." The question then arises, who is to determine what is the respective sphere of the church and the State? "The church" answers our Catholic friends. But then, on this supposition, the church might accomplish any end, no matter how worldly or injurious to the community, by simply declaring it to be a spiritual necessity; and the State would be compelled to submit.

Now, our American principle of self-government teaches us to the contrary, and tells us that the church must not only be separated from the State, but also in all temporal concerns must be subordinated to it.

Based upon the idea of the sovereign power of the people, the State, as the expression of the sovereignty, is the highest competent authority in American life. It follows, then, that the State cannot allow another power alongside of it, vested with superior or even equal right, and absolutely independent of its authority. The State is the supreme power in the land, and whatever disobeys its laws and so opposes the public interest will and must give way. To be sure, the State allows you and me a large measure of individual liberty. It grants certain definite privileges to the family, also, and to other associations of men for specific purposes, but only so far as these do not oppose the public will and welfare. So the church enjoys a certain independence in administering her temporal affairs; but whenever she oversteps the limits of her freedom and acts against the general good, or does anything to abridge the civil rights of the members of her own communion, then the State has a right to interfere and make her superior authority felt. On the other hand, in the sphere of pure speculative and spiritual interests the church is sovereign and absolutely free. Here the State acknowledges its limitations, and leaves the spiritual prerogatives of the Church unchallenged and unquestioned.

This is the true American doctrine then: in spiritual concerns, the absolute independence of the church; in temporal affairs, the subordination of the church to the State.

One of the most prominent of these demands is that the nation insert the name of God, if not a formal recognition of Christianity, into our National Constitution. But surely this would not make the nation any more Christian, if public and private sentiment be not in accordance with it. The Southern Confederacy placed such a clause into their articles of federation; but, while their republic was based on human slavery, what was it but a solemn mockery? I take it, the true way for this people to show its Christianity is not to write its dogmas in their Constitution, but to exhibit its virtues in their public and private lives. Remember, too, that such an acknowledgement of God or Christ or Bible would amount to nothing in itself, would be a mere dead letter, unless made vital by a definition of it. That would be the next and necessary step. There is not a word, a sentence, a doctrine in our National Constitution that is not subject to some interpretation and made an authority in our civil and political life. But the moment you thus define the new amendment you recognize some explicit form of religion in the land, and commit a flagrant injustice upon your fellow citizens who do not share that form of belief. For who is to decide upon that interpretation? The majority of course. Now, this majority today is an orthodox Protestant one, and will be for a long time to come. But to give such a definition of the amendment would be to violate the consciences of the Catholic, the Jew, the Unitarian, and a vast number of religious Liberals and Freethinkers. They would not be slow to resist such an invasion of their personal rights; and thus this seemingly harmless Christian amendment in reality has in it the seeds of social strife, religious war, and a possible disruption of the republic.

What blindness, what madness, then, possessed the Protestant advocates of such an amendment? Honest they no doubt are, but grievously unwise. If the proposed amendment should pass Congress by the requisite two-thirds majority, and receive a three-fourth vote in three-fourths of all the States, as is required,—a contingency most unlikely to occur in the present temper of the American people,—it would prove the most dangerous weapon against the Protestant religion that could be put into the hands of its opponents. The only real practical benefits would accrue to the Roman Catholic, as the strongest ecclesiastical body. That church would soon make an application of it that would make the over-zealous Protestant look with affright at the consequences of their folly.

Another demand put forth by the Protestant opponents of the American doctrine of Church and State is for the retention of the Bible in the public schools. A sufficient reason for its exclusion is to be found in the fact that the public reading of the Bible is a liturgical act, as much so in the public schools as in the public service of religion.

Now, we have no right to introduce liturgical acts into a professedly secular institution, especially one supported by a tax levied indiscriminately on all. To read the Bible in the public schools is to inculcate religion there, and a particular form of religion as well. * * *

You may do this, if you have the power; but you cannot do it justly. You may vote down the Catholic, the Jew, the Rationalist; but you cannot reason them down. In retaining the Bible, you are only encouraging the Roman Catholic demand for a division of the public school funds, and justifying parochial and private schools for the education of Catholic youth. Both policy and justice then, should lead to the prompt and total withdrawal of the Bible from all public schools of America. If Protestant interests suffer thereby, so much the more shame to the Protestant Church. But let us not do evil that good may come. The only public school system possible or just in a community like ours, in which there is so much diversity of religious opinion, and in which all are taxed indiscriminately for its support, is one based on secular education, and from which all religious features are excluded. The only school in Oakland where this secularization is not carried out is the Oakland High school, and this matter ought to be remedied there also.

Another notable demand by the upholders of the divine right of the church is for a continued exemption of all church property from taxation. This is not only wrong to the other interests of the community, which have to make up the deficiency, but also directly encourages both the sectarian rivalry and the luxury and ostentation of the churches, which are such serious obstacles to the progress of a true Christianity. In Chicago I visited recently a splendid and luxurious temple, the property of a few rich men, which they use but a few hours each week. The rest of the time it is given over to silence and emptiness—handsome to look at, but otherwise as useless a piece of property as you will find in the whole city. Its cost was, perhaps, a quarter of a million of dollars; and if justly taxed, as it ought to be, it would place in the city treasury some five or six thousand dollars, or enough to furnish the suffering poor with fuel during the hard winter. Now why should these excellent gentlemen be exempted from paying for their private luxury in worshipping God, when the poor mechanic or laborer, who happens to own the roof over his head, however humble it may be, must come forward promptly and pay his tax upon it—a tax larger because of this very exemption of church property?

In that very city I knew a Roman Catholic priest who purchased quite a tract of land, built a small chapel, and for eight years had the whole tract exempted from taxation. At the end of this time he sold the land at a large increase and built a costly church nearly a mile farther south. Is the State to be a partner in such ecclesiastical real estate speculations?

Consider, too, how rapidly the church property is increasing in this country. In San Francisco it amounts to something like $6,000,000, and is taxed for only $1,769,915. If justly taxed it would maintain all the city charities, and half pay for the public schools besides. In New York City the single corporation of Trinity Church owns property valued at $25,000,000. According to the census of 1850, the amount of property held by the different religious denominations in the United States was $87,000,000. In 1860, only ten years after, it had doubled and was reformed at $171,000,000. In 1870 it had again doubled, amounting to $354,000,000. If this rate of increase be kept up till the end of the present century only it would reach the enormous sum of $2,885,000,000. Will not our Government soon have to take steps to restrict and regulate this dangerous monopoly—a monopoly more threatening to our future peace as a nation than any other which afflicts us? Now, the best restriction upon it is to equitably tax all church property; and, in view of its enormous wealth the demand of the Church for a continued exemption seems singularly immodest and unfair.

In the Catholic parish church at Monterey I read a complaint affixed to its walls that California is the only State in the Union which taxes its churches. All honor to our State for that. It only points the way which all our States will, sooner or later, be compelled to follow. I am proud of the action of our Unitarian Society in Tacoma, which sent up last month to the Constitutional Convention of the new State of Washington a petition that all church property be equally and equitably taxed. Let me ask once more: "has civil society a right to give the public money outright to a religious or ecclesiastical body, to a missionary or tract society, or to a church?" According to our American doctrine of Church and State, it has not.

"But is there any difference between releasing one from a debt of $10, which he is bound to pay, and giving him $10? Is there any difference whatever between paying out money from the public treasury and remitting taxes that are coming into the public treasury?"

It is often said, in reply to this, that churches ought not to be taxed because they yield no income. But the question of income does not enter into the reasons of taxation at all. A great many things yield no income, and yet are taxed—wild lands, for instance, and other unproductive real property. A great many of our merchants to-day would like to be exempt from taxation on their unsold or depreciated stocks, from which they receive no returns.

But most commonly it is argued in behalf of the churches that there are many substantial benefits arising to the State from their existence, and this ought to be considered a fair exchange for their unpaid taxes. But the argument proves too much. Nearly all kinds of private property render important public service to the State. All private schools, for example, all art galleries, opera-houses, and music-halls; all life insurance companies, railways, and banks—might claim a similar exemption on the ground of public services rendered the State. The only honest and sensible way is for churches to bear their fair share of public taxation as well as other corporations.

In the Old World the property exempt from taxes often amounted to one-third or even one-half of the entire amount returned. At last the evil became so unbearable that the governments took the matter in hand and remedied it. Shall we maintain in free America a system which the monarchies of Europe have found impracticable and dangerous to the State?

To the other demands made by an unwise Protestantism, I can only refer by name. Such are the religious tests for holding office, and even for jurors and witnesses, still found on the statute-books of some of the States, or which discriminate for or against the Church; the legal recognition of Sunday, not from motives of natural morality and civil expediency, but because of its supposed supernatural institution and religious authority; the enforcement of oaths in the public courts, which to many are a violation of conscience, and to most a solemn farce; and the issue of Thanksgiving and similar proclamations by the President or Governors of States. For while such occasions as this of public praise and gratitude are fitting in the life of a people—I wish we had more of them—they should be left to the discretion and piety of the churches. As these find it possible to agree on an annual week of prayer, they might be equally harmonious in appointing a day of universal thanksgiving.

But all these minor reforms will receive their righteous disposal, when the mind and conscience of the nation are fully controlled by the sentiment of the secularized State. These changes must all be made gradually and peacefully. We have no autocrat among us. Public sentiment must first be educated to the proper degree, and then it will express itself at the polls. Education, reason, justice, humanity—to these we appeal, and we are confident that ours shall at last be the victory.

SUNDAY SPORTS.

The Champions Win a Game at Merced.

When Colonel Tom Robinson's excursion of 400 arrived in Stockton Sunday morning they did not have a very bright outlook. In the first place there was a fear that the Oaklands were tired out. Then the new battery, Wehrle and Stallings, failed to arrive, and to cap the climax Roscoe Coughlan could not pitch, as he had pitched three games in the last week. There was only one thing to do, to put Farrell in the box. This was done with the understanding that Coughlan would be put in in the fifth inning. If this plan had been carried out the Stocktons would have been shut out. As soon as the Oakland boys learned that Coughlan was going to pitch they plucked up courage. This plan was departed from slightly. Farrell pitched a magnificent game for six innings, and his support was very near perfect. In the seventh inning he went to pieces and sent four men to bases on balls. Captain O'Neil saw that the Oaklands must do something or lose the game, and he exhibited his executive ability by finishing the inning with Smalley in the box, and then letting Coughlan win the game in the next two innings. The score by innings stood:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Oaklands...	0	4	1	0	0	9	3	2	*	—19

The Colonels have played in excellent luck during the past week. In the game Saturday at the Haight street park they defeated the San Franciscos by a score of 14 to 3.

THE RECORD.

The league record up to date shows that the Oakland are within one game of the leader:

Clubs.	Won.	Lost	Played	Percentage
San Francisco	31	25	56	.553
Oakland	30	26	56	.535
Stockton	27	29	56	.482
Sacramento	24	32	56	.428

Tribunes at Merced.

The champion Tribunes played a match game with a local team at Merced yesterday and won by a score of 7 to 1. The champions are jubilant over their victory.

I have used Pond's Extract for myself and family for some time and find it to be the best article of the kind I ever used. It will remove stiffness and soreness of the muscles in a very short time, and in my opinion no baseball player or athlete should be without this valuable compound. Yours truly, JAMES MUTRIE, Manager New York Baseball Club.

A MARVEL OF PURITY.

"ROYAL" A PERFECT BAKING POWDER—ABSOLUTELY FREE FROM LIME AND ALUM.

The Royal Baking Powder is considered by all chemists and food analysts to be a marvel of purity, strength, and wholesomeness. Furthermore, it is now the only baking powder before the public free from both lime and alum and absolutely pure.

This exclusive purity is due largely to the improved method by the use of which it has been made possible to produce a perfectly pure cream of tartar, from which all the lime, etc., has been eliminated.

This chemically pure cream of tartar is exclusively employed in the manufacture of the Royal Baking Powder, so that its absolute freedom from lime and all other extraneous substances is guaranteed.

Professor McMurtrie, late chemist in chief to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., after analyzing samples of the various baking powders of the market, testified to the absolute purity of the Royal Baking Powder as follows:

"All chemical tests to which I have submitted it have proved the Royal Baking Powder perfectly healthful, of uniform, excellent quality and free from every deleterious substance.

Electric Lighting.

There appears to be a general feeling that it is time to light the city by electricity. At the same time this is a most important step not to be taken without deliberation and care. It involves an expenditure on the part of the city of $65,000 and if it is attempted to do things in a hurry, some serious mistakes may be made. As the matter stands now the contract for poles and wires cannot be let before October first, because the necessary preliminaries, the reference to the Board of Public Works, advertising, the passage of the requisite ordinances, and the opening of bids cannot be concluded before that time. If it is sought to have the system in operation by January 1st next, the time seems too short. It will be wiser to let the contract date from the beginning of the next fiscal year in July, 1890.

A STORY of extraordinary daring comes from Ruthven, Ont., where William H. Marvin undertook to uncap a big gas well which had been set on fire. It was simply impossible to approach the burning well by ordinary means. A stream of water directed on the well turned to steam before it touched the base of the ground. The owner of the well offered $1000 to any man who would knock off the cap, and Marvin made himself a suit of asbestos, which he put on over layers of drenched clothes. In the second attempt he succeeded, but he was badly scorched, his body blistered, and his feet burned as if he had held them on the fire. Twice he nearly fainted when close to the burning well, and had he lost consciousness he would have been burned to a cinder in five minutes.

IS it a sacreligious outrage to burn a Chinese joss? That is the question which some young bloods of Oroville would like to have answered in the negative. It appears that some of them went on what they are pleased in their jocular way to call a "toot," and in the course of the evening visited the joss house. Their hilarity took the form of carrying off the joss to the riverside, where they set the grinning idol on fire, while they executed a savage dance around the funeral pyre. They are now called upon to answer for their misdeeds. They offer to compromise on malicious mischief, and will buy a new joss if necessary. So long as wood and paint hold out nobody need suffer for want of a joss.

THE Fish Commissioners are discussing the advisability of introducing foreign game birds in the expectation that they will breed and multiply for the good of the sporting fraternity. An experiment of this sort might be very easily tried by obtaining from Oregon some couples of the Mongolian pheasant introduced there some years ago. These birds have increased to such an extent that they already form a valuable addition to the food resources of the State. They are as large as an average full grown rooster, and their meat is of exquisite flavor.

THE editor of the Colusa Herald is a "tin soldier," and in the course of his duty as such went to Sisson, where his regiment was encamped last week. He left one printer in charge of the office, and a day or two before the regular date of publication the substitute received the following telegram: "In guardhouse; can't get home Tuesday. Do best you can about getting out paper." Too often, alas! the paths of glory lead but to the guardhouse. Martial law has but little regard for the liberty of the press.

THERE was some doubt in the general mind on the question whether Sullivan would be punished because he was guilty of an offense against the laws of Mississippi, or because he had affronted the dignity of the State. We have now the word of the Judge who sentenced him to a year's imprisonment that he is punished because of the affront. But in that dignified and law-abiding commonwealth the killing of a defenseless "nigger" is regarded as neither an offense nor an affront.

MR. WENDTE'S discourse on the public school system printed on another page should be read by all, as a fair exposition of the American doctrine of education.

A QUEER result of local prejudice is seen in the action of the Regents of Ann Arbor University in discharging Professor Donald MacLean, at the head of the Department of Surgery, and Professor G. B. Frothingham, holding a similar position in the Department of Ophthalmology in the University Medical school. This is the result of the action of the Regents of the University in locating a medical hospital at Ann Arbor and securing an appropriation from the last Legislature for the purpose Both the professors advocated the location of the hospital at Detroit as a necessity, in order to secure the needful supply of clinical material. Their active advocacy of a project adverse to local interests aroused strong local animosities, while the Regents were offended at an alleged officious interference on the part of professors in their employ.

THE comments of the London press on the Terry tragedy are more than usually queer. There is, of course, the characteristic solemnity coupled with ignorance of American affairs. The Daily News adds this fatuous comment: "It may help Neagle to justify it to plead that he was defending the brother of Cyrus Field, one of the most eminent citizens of the republic."

The Clergyman Appalled.

Bloomington (Ill.,) Sunday Eye.

A certain Bloomington girl is a persistent scrapbook maker. The other day she greatly horrified her mother. The minister had just called and asked after the young lady, and she was sent for. "How do you entertain yourself, Miss Blanche, during these warm days?" asked the reverend man. The bright girl smiled. "Scrapping," she demurely answered. The minister looked scared. He was slightly familiar with the slang of the day. Then she came from her chair, "Would you like to have me paste you one?" she sweetly asked. "No-o-o," stammered the clergyman, and his call suddenly ended.

A String of Davids.

Alta.

It is curious how the name David runs through the principal incidents in the life of the late ex-Judge Terry. He was named David, and he killed David C. Broderick in a duel. One of Broderick's seconds was David D. Colton, and the duel was witnessed by David J. Brewer, United States Circuit Judge of the Eighth Judicial district of Illinois Terry was killed by David Neagle, and Justice Field's father and one of his brothers were baptized David.

Those Two Southern Governors.

Two mighty men of high degree
Went hunting for a lively flea,
And when at last they found him,
They called their armed retainers out,
And leading each his valiant rout,
They vowed they would surround him.

"And if he jumps to me," one said,
"By all the Gods, he's good as dead!"
And, blustering, said the other:
"If he shall jump to me, eheu!
That dastard act he'll dearly rue,
And wish he'd had no mother!"

Then leaped the flea: they both turned pale,
Their startled armies turning tail,
Fled each in diverse ways.
"He bit you, sir," one leader said;
"Had he bit me he had been dead,
And numbered all his days."

The other, when the flea was gone,
Again his valiant air put on,
And issued proclamation.
"If any one shall catch that flea,
I'll crush him wheresoe'er he be!"
This to a laughing nation.

Only that and Nothing More.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In an article headed "The Aristocratic Ward," in your Thursday's issue, the writer takes occasion to animadvert on the sewer running between Harrison and Alice streets, and terms it a "long cesspool," and the branches "side cesspools." The simple fact is that the sewer (which is an excellent one, of ironstone, none better in Oakland, as the sewer men we have had at work will testify), had become stopped up (as all sewers will occasionally) two or three days ago, and as a necessary result the sewage backed up into one or two of the lowest lying cellars. This was on last Thursday night. On Friday morning we set men to work, and in a few hours the sewer was cleaned out, and all serene again—and will remain so till the next accumulation of solid matter, perhaps five years hence, when it may want cleaning out again. And that is all—simply that, and nothing more.

The juvenile pencil pusher, who has allowed his zeal to run away with his discretion, had better ascertain the real condition of affairs the next time before he undertakes to proclaim that the Fifth ward is "filthy." I will venture to say that we have the cleanest ward in the city—none excepted.

And as for the sewers running down the middle of the blocks, though it may not be the best place for them, it is far better than having them run down the center of the streets. In fact, the whole center street sewering is a great mistake, that ought to be abolished at once and replaced by the "side" system. The slight difference in cost would be fully counterbalanced by the saving of the streets, not taking into consideration that smaller sewers would answer, also the saving of the branches from the side to the center. Apropos of that, I notice on Harrison street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, where it has recently been nicely graded and macadamized, that the ruining process has already commenced—a trench for either water or gas has been dug clear across the street, and, as usual, the stuff has been thrown back "after a fashion," and what is now an unsightly ridge will in a few months probably become an unsightly hollow, and thus the little game goes on. We taxpayers have to go down into our pockets to put the streets in good order, and as soon as that is done on comes the sewer and water and gas demons and rival each other who can soonest ruin them, and, as the immortal Tweed remarked, what are you going to do about it? It is about time something was done is the opinion of HARRISON STREET.

Oakland, August 19, 1889.

A Bad Place.

Livermore Herald.

Albert Bjorn, a nephew of Rasmus Bjorn of this township, who has recently been in the employ of Louis Schafter, at his Fashion stable, recently rented a piece of land, near Midway. Last Saturday he started for the place, by way of Patterson Pass, with a load of lumber for a house. While driving down the heavy grade, on the east side of the summit, his team suddenly started to run. He was finally thrown off, one of his legs being broken by the fall. Here he lay from 4 o'clock in the afternoon till 11 o'clock at night. He was then found by Gilbert Furbush, who was returning home from his separator in the San Joaquin valley. He took the man to his house, and he was brought to town the following day. A similar accident and injury befel John Mulqueeney on the same spot, about six years ago.

The Sunday Law.

Tomorrow evening Professor A. T. Jones will deliver a free lecture at Hamilton Hall against the Sunday law movement.

"OH MY SON."

A Young Man Accused of Burglary Meets His Mother in Jail.

Albert Hogan is a young man locked up in the County Jail on a charge of burglary committed in Alameda. He has respectable parents residing across the estuary who are anxious to secure his release from prison. On Saturday Mrs. Hogan and her little daughter visited the jail and the young prisoner was called out from among the others to meet his mother. "Oh my son!" said the lady as her boy advanced toward her. His little sister, however, did not realize the situation of her brother and she threw her arms about his neck and kissed him again and again and wanted to know why "those horrid men kept him locked up in such a small room." Hogan's eyes were not dry when he said to the little one "it will be all right in a few days." The mother and son consulted together for about an hour concerning his defense. It was a very pathetic scene and one which frequently occurs at the County Jail.

Berkeley.

J. E. Moffit of Oakland has removed to this town.

E. S. Irvine and family have returned from Blue Canyon, Placer County.

Dr. M. C. O'Toole is now in London, and is expected back about the last of September.

C. A. Adams has returned from Santa Maria and Santa Clara where he has been spending a few weeks.

The Peralta Park Hotel Association office has been removed to North Berkeley, corner of Vine street and Shattuck avenue.

There seems to be a great scarcity of houses in town, notwithstanding the fact that a large number of buildings are being completed every week. Some newcomers are living in sheds and tents until residences can be erected for them to live in.

George Schmidt has now made different arrangements, and will have his East Berkeley branch office where the headquarters of the Peralta Park Hotel Association were formerly. The office formerly occupied by Joseph Hume will hereafter be the headquarters of Town Engineer M. G. King.

A bridge is being constructed over Sausal creek on Huff street, under the supervision of Blake & Cotton. The contract price is $1081.

Daniel Griffin, an old resident of East Oakland, died at the County Hospital, of pneumonia. Mr. Griffin had resided here for twenty years past.

Mrs. E. E. Taylor, mother of Mrs. George Albright, died at the residence of her daughter, at 1030 Fifth avenue, East Oakland, aged 76 years.

Mrs. E. E. Taylor, mother of Mrs. George Albright, died at the residence of her daughter, at 1030 Fifth avenue, East Oakland, aged 76 years.

Patrick Crowley of Duncker's Express and bride have gone to Adams Springs to spend their honeymoon. On their return they will occupy rooms at the Union Hotel.

The examination of Louis Yot, the Chinaman who shot Charles Walters in San Leandro on the 26th of May last, took place on Saturday last before Justice Mathews, to whose court the case had been brought at the time of the arrest. There was no acting Justice of the Peace in San Leandro, owing to the resignation of Justice Kenworthy. The defendant was held over to the Superior Court with bail fixed at $3000.

A Dispute About Money.

Last evening about 9 o'clock Officer Nedderman arrested a Japanese named Samuel Handy, a domestic employed in a private family on Fourteenth street, and lodged him in the City Prison on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The prisoner says that he loaned a man named Knuth, living on Franklin street, between Third and Fourth streets, the sum of $22 90. Last evening Handy went to Knuth's house and demanded his money. A dispute followed, and high words passed between Knuth, his son Alec, and Mr. Handy. The latter charges that after some moments Knuth and his son seized his cane and broke it. He asked them to let him alone, when they took him by the collar and forced him down the steps. He then told them if they did not let him go he would draw his pistol, and made a motion to do so. The Knuths then took the pistol away from him and handed him over to Officer Nedderman.

Neagle's Reason.

Chronicle.

Captain Yale of the Alameda County Jail wanted to entertain me over there, and he is a nice old gentleman too. The reason I did not go was because I did not care to be crossing the bay as often as I would have to.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the Cal. Fig Syrup Company.

People Wonder

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, J. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his feet. I sent him Ayer's Almanac and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. DRUNKENNESS

(Or the Liquor Habit), Positively

Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. 48 Page Book of particulars free. E. J. HONEST CLOTHING!

HONEST CLOTHING!

It is our mission to enlighten the public as to what is and what is not Honest Clothing. By the term honest, we don't mean clothing that won't lie, or steal, or stuff a ballot-box; but clothing that is what we claim for it, a really serviceable article, which will do us credit in the selling and the customer service in the wear.

Some of our competitors don't seem to like our sharp analysis of some of the trash offered for sale, nor our allusions to the various and questionable methods of business in vogue.

They seem to regard with fear and trembling the general education of the public on this subject as some frail craft, tempest tossed, fears the gathering breakers that rush and toss about it. But, as for us, we stand like the Defiant Lighthouse and, while the sea of competition washes around our base, we still continue to pour a flood of light on matters pertaining to our business.

A notable example of Honest Clothing is found in those Pants we now offer at $5. True, you can buy pants all around at $3, but they are not what we are showing. We've got 'em at $2 50, if you want a low priced article, and can furnish that sort of article as well as anybody, and give you better value every time.

Same is true of the Suits we offer at $10 and $12. Suits are daily advertised a few cents lower than $10, an endeavor, we suppose, to break the force of the immediate success of our popular sale. But don't immagine that the goods are at all alike. There's a bigger difference in quality than there is in price, and it's in our favor.

Those Scarfs at 25c are another illustration of the marvelous bargains we are at times able to offer you. Have you seen them? If you have "nuf ced." If not, we only ask you to look at them; you'll buy fast enough.

CHENEY'S QUEST

Ended at the Grave of Maud Van Zandt.

PLEASANTON AND HAYWARDS STORY

The Eventful Career and Unfortunate Death of the Young Man's Mother.

Charles Cheney, a young man 23 years of age, who recently came to California in search of his mother, whom he has not seen since his infancy, has ended his quest. His search terminated by the side of a little mound in a San Francisco cemetery.

The story of the life led by the mother of the boy is one of great interest.

Some years ago Edward M. Cheney, a railroad contractor, lived with his wife and child at an hotel in Pleasanton. Some trouble having arisen between the couple, they separated, and shortly afterward the wife, a beautiful young German woman, went to Haywards, where she was employed in a millinery establishment.

Finding some difficulty in supporting her child she put him in an orphan asylum in San Francisco, whence he was removed by his father, who took the child and put him in charge of relatives in Illinois.

A few years afterward Mrs. Cheney received a letter from her former husband stating that the child had died of a fever; and the mother went down to her grave still believing the truth of this story.

While in Haywards Mrs. Cheney had made the acquaintance of Dr. John Van Zandt, whom she finally married, and with whom she resided in San Francisco. They had been married four or five years when the doctor became insane and was sent to the Asylum at Napa, where he died shortly afterward.

Mrs. Van Zandt had now nothing to live for, and she soon plunged into a career of reckless dissipation which terminated in her tragic death at the Palace Hotel on July 5, 1884, from the effects of a criminal operation. The unfortunate woman had been living in luxury for years, having received a large fortune on the death of a wealthy admirer from Los Angeles, and having received many valuable gifts from different men of wealth who had sought her favor.

Her case created much attention, especially as her physician was arrested for murder. However, he made the defense that she attempted to perform the operation herself, and that her death was the result of her own inexperience.

When young Cheney came to this State for the purpose of finding his long-lost mother, his story was published, and it came under the notice of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Larrabee, the artists of 1156 Broadway, in this city, with whom Mrs. Cheney had lived in Haywards. They sent for the young man and from them he learned the sad story of his mother's life and death—the story of one who was probably more sinned against than sinning.

LAWN TENNIS.

Result of the High School Tournament Last Saturday.

The Oakland High school tennis tournament, which has been looked forward to with a good degree of enthusiasm by the members of the club, took place last Saturday at the courts on the corner of Ninth and West streets. The games began at 10 A. M., and lasted until night. At noon ice cream, cakes, and grapes were arranged for slaughter. The court was circled within by a complete assortment of young ladies and dipper coated men to match.

The wind up of the games left C. W. Dickey and Sheffield Sanborne to play it out. The first prize was a handsome gold medal, the second an improved tennis racquet. Sanborne failed to "return" against the "volleys" that Dickey drives, and after a short, exciting game Dickey carried off the medal. This was the first tournament of the kind ever given by the High School Club.

Among those present, many being from other clubs, were: Miss Birdie Huntington, Miss Lurline Barrington, Miss Florence Herrick, Miss Mae Bates, Miss Ethel Moore, Miss Myrtle Walker, Miss Pauline Marshall, Miss Clara Safford, Miss Emma Knight, Miss Belle Hutchison, Miss Bessie Gaskill, Miss Kate Martin, Miss Fannie Merriman, Miss Bessie McNear, Miss Gertrude Allen, Miss Margie Gaskill, Miss Minnie Walker, Miss Grace Fisher, Miss Ethel Bates, Miss Carrie Nicholson, Miss Bessie Stoddard, Miss Lou Beauvais, Miss Evelyn Stoddard, Ed Wilder, Frank Gamble, Tom Prole, Frank Alexander, Al Moore, Charles Parcells, C. W. Dickey, S. B. McNear, Charley Bates, Mr. Hoffman, Brick Wheaton, Loui Mastin, Messrs. Fine Fisher, Cooke, Sanborne, Nicholson, and Godhue, Edward W. Eaps, S. P. Meads, J. McNamara, Will N. Friend, R. Friend, Fred Dickson, George Flint, Herbert Lang, Ed Westall, Marion Westall, Alexander Smart, Miles Fisher, Ben Marx, Willie Williamson, Herbert Sackett and others.

A Surprise.

On last Monday evening a very pleasant surprise was given Miss Nevy Williams at her mother's residence. Those present were: Misses G. F. Pierce, Rose Jurgens, Beth Tuft, Emma Arthur, May, Bertha and Emily Scrivener, Nelly Williams; Mrs. Scrivener, Mrs. Amidon, Mrs. Calkin, Mrs. Hammett, Mrs. Williams; Messrs. J. A. Selby, F. J. Prolt, C. H. Burg, F. Reynolds, J. W. Quinn, W. S. Holloway, J. C. Burg, Hugh Mulligan, Will Shaw, Henry Gieschen, L. Byron, C. H. Bradley, S. Patterson.

Adding to Their Plant.

The Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company has added to its electric light plant a 150 horse power engine. This is to supply additional force to that furnished by the 600 horse power Corliss engine. Two dynamos are being run at the electric light works at present.

The new 35,000 gallon iron tank at the foot of Clay street, for the storage of petroleum, is nearly completed, and will have an iron sheathing to protect it from fire.

The company is also building a gas holder at the foot of Filmore street in Alameda, with a capacity of 150,000 feet of gas. The new wires for the incandescent system of stove lighting have nearly all been placed.

An Odd Fellows' Hall.

An Odd Fellows' Hall will be erected at Irvington, by Mission Peak Lodge 114, I. O. O. F., in the near future. It will be a brick and iron block with business houses on the lower floor, and hall, library and reading room in the upper story. This lodge is one of the wealthiest in the State.

The Eight Hour League.

The Oakland Eight Hour League will meet at Dania Hall, corner of Eighth and Broadway, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Meetings will be held every Tuesday evening at the same place until further notice.

With Incandescent Lights.

The directors of the Athenian Club have made a contract with the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company to supply the clubrooms with incandescent electric lights. The gas lights now in use make the rooms uncomfortably warm in the summer months.

THE FIFTH.

They Got a Certificate of Good Moral Character.

The Fifth Regiment returned yesterday afternoon from Santa Cruz, arriving at the Alameda mole at 4:15. The soldier boys did not appear to be injured in any way by the numerous sham battles held, but in their fight with old Sol they were evidently beaten, as the sunburned faces and peeled noses would show. Camp was broken at 11 A. M., and Rev. O. C. Wheeler, Chaplain of the regiment, conducted divine services. Before the line was formed Colonel Donahue read a letter of thanks to the regiment from Mayor Bowman on behalf of the citizens of Santa Cruz for its good conduct during the encampment and inviting the regiment to return next year. On Saturday last, General Miles, in command of the Division of the Pacific U. S. A., reviewed the regiment and at the conclusion, at his own request personally inspected Company A, of Oakland. He will recommend to the Department of War the allowance of new arms for the company. As the regiment was about to take the train the young ladies of Santa Cruz presented every soldier with a handsome bouquet. The Fifth Regiment Band will give a concert in the City Hall Park on Tuesday night to make up for the one which should have been given last Friday evening.

Gilroy Springs.

The following is the list of arrivals at this resort for the week ending August 16th: P. Gasson, J. J. Flinn, J. C. Humphrey, W. J. Kilip, T. Geblen, D. B. Collins, Dr. James Healy, R. F. Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien, S. Timble, L. Carolan, J. Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Egan, Mrs. Emerson and maid, Mrs. Woods, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stellens, Sacramento; W. I. Murray, Mrs. Murray, Menlo Park; A. E. Lea, Denver.

A SUCCESSFUL COMPANY.

A Record Unequaled in the History of Express Companies.

Two years ago there was a little one wagon express company started and called the "People's Express Company." From the first success stared the company in the face, and owing to the prompt and careful attention to business and being in the hands of good managers it is today the most extensive and best conducted company on the coast, and its patrons have placed the stamp of their approval upon the above statement. It runs the largest and most costly wagons that cross the bay, manufactured expressly for it, and unparalleled in structure, some being especially built to carry furniture and pianos while others are for heavy freight, safes, etc. This company's baggage system is beyond the possibility of questioning, the most reliable and prompt medium of transportation. It checks baggage at hotels or residences to all parts of the United States. Office 425 Tenth street. Telephone 326.

DROP in to George's Exchange, 477 Eighth street, for fresh beer on tap, choice wines, liquors and cigars, and weiss beer.

For Diseases of Horses

There is nothing that compares with Cole's Veterinary Carbolisalve. It cures Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Collar and Saddle Galls, Sores, Mange, Scratches, Thrush, Inflammations and all skin and hoof diseases quicker than any other remedy. It is the only preparation that will invariably renew the hair its original color. Edwin D. Bither, driver of Jay Eye See, says: "Having given Veterinary Carbolisalve a thorough trial, I can fully endorse it, and take pleasure in recommending it to all owners of horses as the best remedy that I ever saw for general stable use." Large cans $1 00; Small cans 50 cents. Sold by Osgood Bros.

Prepare for War.

Autumn is now approaching, and it will not be long before summer suits will have to be laid to one side for the warmer fabrics and darker shades suited to fall and the rainy season. O'Connor, the merchant tailor at 1010 Broadway, has been interviewed, and his stock of materials investigated by a TRIBUNE reporter and it was found that he has the most complete stock of fashionable standard goods in the city. It is needless to say anything of his prices, for it is well known that they are away down to bedrock, and his makeup is simply excellent.

He Is Still There.

Joe Lancaster means every word he says when he asserts that he can make as good and fine a suit of clothes as any merchant tailor in America, as cheap, if not cheaper than any other; and, what is more, he is ready and willing to prove the assertion at any time. He carries a complete stock of all the best and latest styles of cloths, and he is always up with the fashion in cutting and making. He holds forth at the corner of Tenth and Washington streets.

Greatest Bargains in Pianos.

Six very good second-hand square pianos and a few uprights from $60 to $175. Must be sold or rented, to make room for the large stock of new Wheelock Pianos, now on the road. No such bargains in pianos ever offered in Oakland. $5 a month will buy a good piano. F. R. GIRARD'S Piano House, Broadway, near Fourteenth street.

To the Public.

I wish to announce to my friends and the public in general that I will open my new store, 807 Washington street, with a full line of household supplies, Monday August 12th.

Respectfully,

E. WISE.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.
EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by Grocers, labelled thus:

AN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

Balls, Parties, Engagements, and Picnics—People Returning From the Country.

Engaged.

The wedding of C. Heritz of West Oakland and Miss Pope will be solemnized on the evening of October 15th.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lillian V. Harris of Oakland and Mr. Horace Coffin of San Francisco. The wedding is to take place Thursday evening, August 22d.

The wedding of Mr. John W. Compkins and Miss Emma Altman takes place at St. Paul's Church, Wednesday, at 11 A. M.

Coming Events.

The Elite Social Club will give their novel card party next Saturday night. None should fail to attend who want a stack of fun, for the managers of the club have successfully puzzled their brains on all previous occasions to give a first class party.

A sheet and pillow case party will be held at Wolf's dancing academy on Thirteenth street, November 16th. Professor Wolf intends to make it very attractive.

A benefit concert will be given Miss Hattie M. Sackett of Alameda the second Tuesday in September at the Park Opera House.

Unity Chapter, No. 65, Order of Eastern Star, will give a geographical party at Fraternity Hall Monday evening, August 26, 1889.

China Wedding Anniversary.

On Sunday evening occurred the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Drais at their pleasant cottage, 771 Nineteenth street. This event was one of marked interest and under no circumstances in our material affairs could a company enjoy the uselves more fully than did the guests on this occasion. At 9:30 o'clock the husband and wife took their places beside a rustic table upon which rested a Bible and on one side stood the same lady and gentleman who twenty years before stood in the same position while the youthful bride and groom were joined. Upon this occasion, however, the officiating minister, Rev. C. Yager a well preserved old gentleman with snowy hair, instituted an idea of his own in the ceremony which was indeed unique. Instead of joining the right hands, as is the usual custom, the couple joined both hands, and, amid the strains of low song, the memories of doings in the buried years were wafted back again before the minds of the live who stood at the tourniage altar.

The ceremony was closed with the impressive song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and at its close there was not an eye in the room that did not betray a tear.

A fine supper was then partaken of. The table upon which the feast was spread was richly embowered with flowers, and the dainty morsels tasted better as each new dish was served. The scene was one that will never be forgotten by those who witnessed it. Among the invited guests were: Rev. C. Yager of Fresno. From Farmington, San Joaquin county, Mrs. Mary Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Drais, Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, Mrs. Emma Carter, Miss Birdie Drais, Miss Alice Owen, Miss Minnie Drais, Miss Mary Wayne, Miss Flora Drais.

From Oakland—Mrs. C. B. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Mrs. A. M. Wright, Miss Francis McClanahan, Miss Minnie White, Miss Birdie De Long, Tolly De Long, Mrs. S. E. Drais, Mr. and Mrs. H. McFarlin, Miss Hyra McFarlin, Rev. and Mrs. Merrill, Arthur Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bennison, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Fowler, J. W. Epley, James Evans and wife of Visalia, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and daughters Henry Drais, Albert Drais, Mrs. Perrigo Mrs. T. M. Blickley, Mrs. Amanda Trip, Robert Drais, Madison J. Drais Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, Ross House, Mrs. Ross, Brunswick House and others.

The list of presents included: J. W Epley, one half-dozen decorated plates Mr. and Mrs. Keith, set of five pieces of silver onyx; Mr. and Mrs. Davis, teapot and creamer; Mrs. S. M. Sturgis, decorated glass set; Miss McClenahan decorated mush set; Mrs. A. M Wright, mush set and tray; Miss Alice Owens, set of bone dishes; Mrs C. B. Lewis, decorated vase; Mrs Mary Wayne, mush set; Mr. and Mrs T. J. Drais, two ornamental vases; Mrs A. Tripp, set of fancy plates; Mrs. S E. Drais, tea set; M. J. Drais, pair of vases; Mrs. J. N. Carter, decorated plates; Mrs. Mary Wayne, fancy water pitcher; Henry Drais, butter dish Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Blickley, salad dish; H. McFarlane, berry and salad dishes; Misses Drais, cheese dish; Mr and Mrs. James Evans, decorated set of berry dishes.

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for the past eight years. Having tried a number of remedies advertised as "sure cures" without obtaining any relief, I had resolved never to take any other patent medicines, when a friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm. I did so with great reluctance, but can now testify with pleasure that after using it for six weeks I believe myself cured. It is a most agreeable remedy.—Joseph Stewart, 621 Grand Av., Brooklyn.

Buy a Lot for a Home or an Investment.

The attention of the public and particularly those seeking a home on easy terms or a small investment is directed to these most desirable lots in the HERZOG TRACT, located near the station of Golden Gate and Lorin, on the East Berkeley branch of the Broad-gauge road. Their situation is in every respect a most advantageous one, being at the junction of San Pablo and Alcatraz avenues. San Pablo avenue is the great highway between Oakland and Berkeley, along which the present cable road will be extended past the Herzog Tract to Berkeley. Alcatraz avenue runs from San Pablo avenue easterly to College avenue, a distance of nearly two miles; these two avenues have shade trees on either side through the Herzog Tract. The California and Nevada Narrow-gauge road, which is now being extended into Contra Costa County, taps the Herzog Tract on the easterly side.

Only 30 minutes to San Francisco.

The time from this property to San Francisco is only 30 minutes, with communication every half-hour during the day, from 5:30 A. M. to 12 P. M., while the cost of commutation tickets is $3 per month, less than 5 cents each way.

OAKLAND'S FUTURE.

Evidences of a Strong Feeling of Confidence.

Daily Report

The city of Oakland is at the present time one of the liveliest and most enterprising in the State of California. For many years the people of this city have in a half contemptuous, half envious way, referred to Oakland as a suburb of San Francisco, or as the bedchamber of this city. It was said that Oaklanders slept on one side of the bay and did everything else on the other side. And there was until within the last few years some justification for such statements. Most of the people of Oakland had moved to that city from San Francisco. They regarded it as a good place for homes, but their business interests were in San Francisco. They made no protest when it was referred to as a suburb and direct dependent of the larger city.

But as Oakland became older the character of its population began to change. Children became adults and many of the men who carried on business or who held official positions had been brought up, if not actually born, in Oakland. Many of the older inhabitants too had either retired from business in San Francisco or had gained interests in Oakland. As a consequence the people became more confident. They took a pride in their city and virtually made a declaration of independence from their larger neighbor. At this time it is considered almost treason in Oakland to admit that San Francisco is superior in anything but size.

This feeling of confidence in the people has had a remarkable effect in the city of Oakland. Everywhere there are evidences of prosperity and enterprise. When the Oaklanders decided that their city was no longer dependent on San Francisco, they at the same time decided that their city should not be controlled in the same short-sighted way as San Francisco. They decided that public improvements would pay and that parsimony and economy were not synonymous terms. Oakland has many natural advantages. When the projected public improvements shall have been completed, it will be one of the most attractive cities in the whole United States.

Oakland, fortunately, has never had a boom, but it has had every condition which a few years ago would have made one. It has a better foundation for a boom than had any of the cities of Southern California, about which there was such an excitement a year ago. It is a railroad terminus of great importance, it has a harbor which could easily be made the equal of any on the coast, it has a back country noted throughout the State for the quality and variety of its products, it has the lowest death roll of any city in the United States, a superb climate, beautiful surroundings, and enthusiastic, liberal, and enterprising citizens.

There has never been a feverish boom, but there has been gratifying activity in Oakland. Streets are stretching out in all directions, cottages are springing up as if by magic in the suburbs, stately mansions are being erected in the more prominent localities, and large business blocks are beginning to replace the buildings which ten years ago were regarded as far ahead of their time.

It is not hard to predict what the future of Oakland will be. That city has now a population of 60,000. In ten years double that number of people will be living there. It will probably never equal San Francisco in size, but it will constantly approach nearer to an equality with it. There will be two great cities situated on opposite sides of the bay, independent of each other, yet closely bound together by a community of interests.

CALLUSTRO Is used at the toilet, in the machine shop at the jewelers' bench, in the dental chair. It cleans kitchen coppers, removes ink spots, takes stains from clothes, carpets and furniture —everything in fact but from the character. It is a perfect comfort.—J. M. PIXLEY in San Francisco "Argonaut."

OFFICIAL DRAWING

....OF THE....

Louisiana State Lottery.

Single Number, Class "H,"

....DRAWN AT....

NEW ORLEANS, La.,

....ON....

Tuesday, August 13 1889.

ALL GENUINE LOUISIANA STATE Lottery Tickets are dated New Orleans and agree to pay all prizes in New Orleans, where the company holds its charter from the State, and where both the purchaser of a ticket and the company are equally protected by the laws of the State and of the United States. Tickets dated and issued from other cities in the name of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, promising to pay prizes in other places than New Orleans, are not Louisiana State Lottery Tickets at all, but are counterfeits and cheats intended to deceive and defraud the unwary.

Remember that One Dollar is the price of the smallest part or fraction of a ticket issued in any drawing. Anything in our name offered at a less price is either a counterfeit or a swindle. Remember further, when examining to see if your ticket has drawn a prize, never to accept anything but our official drawings, which are copyrighted under the act of Congress and cannot be reprinted correctly under penalty of the law.

PROPOSALS

To Light the Public Streets of the City of Oakland with Electric Light.

OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK OF THE City of Oakland, August 13th, 1889.

In accordance with Resolution No. 14,121 of the City Council, sealed proposals will be received at the office of the City Clerk up to 8 o'clock P. M., of Saturday September, 7th, A. D. 1889, to light with electricity all the public streets of the City of Oakland for the ensuing six months in conformity with the following specifications, and such plans and specification of electric light lines as were adopted by the Council on the 12th day of August, 1889, which are now on file in the office of the City Clerk.

A. First—The lamps, carbons, electrodes, and each and every appliance, article or apparatus which may be necessary for electric lighting, but which is not included in the plans and specifications aforementioned, must be furnished by the successful bidder.

Second—The lamps must be lighted on what is known as the moonlight schedule, with the understanding that the lights shall also be furnished upon all such moonlight nights as the moon may be obscured by clouds or otherwise, if the same shall be deemed necessary by the Chief of Police, under the direction of the Board of Public Works, such extra lighting to be paid for at proportionate contract rate.

Third—The parties bidding shall state the commercial candle power of each light to be furnished.

Fourth—Bidders will state the price for maintaining each lamp per month in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted by the Council and on file in the office of the City Clerk, as aforesaid.

Fifth—The successful bidder will be required to keep the electric light lines in constant repair during the term of his contract, and must restore the same to the city at the expiration of his contract in good condition, ordinary wear and tear being excepted.

B. Bidders will also estimate and bid for the lighting of the streets of the city by electricity, in accordance with the plans and specifications aforementioned, the light to be furnished from one half hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise every night in the year.

C. Bidders must estimate with the understanding that the Council will have the right to change and designate the location, and increase or diminish the number of electric lights on poles, masts or towers, during the continuance of the contract, at rates not to exceed the price of and paid for in said contract.

D. Bidders must submit their proposals with the distinct understanding that the acceptance by the Council of any bid to light the streets of the city shall be subject to and date from the 1st day of January, 1890.

E. Bidders must deposit with the City Clerk a certified check drawn to the order of the City Clerk in the sum of $500, conditioned that if the proposal is accepted and the contract awarded and the bidder shall fail or neglect to execute a written contract thereunder, and give a good and sufficient bond, with two or more sureties, in the sum of $10,000, for the proper fulfillment of said contract within twenty days after the award of said contract, then and in that event the said sum shall be paid into the City Treasury by said City Clerk as liquidated damages for such failure and neglect.

F. The Council reserves the right to reject all bids.

J. M. BRADY,
City Clerk.

PROPOSALS

For the Re-construction of Brick of That Portion of the Main Lake Sewer Lying Between the Easterly Line of Broadway and the Easterly Line of Webster Street in the City of Oakland.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC Works, Oakland, August 16th, 1889.

In accordance with resolution No. 173 of the Board of Public Works SEALED PROPOSALS will be received in open session of the Board of Public Works at their office in the City Hall, on Tuesday, the 10th day of September, A. D. 1889, from 7:30 to 8:30 P. M., for the reconstructing of brick of that portion of the Main Lake Sewer lying between the east line of Broadway and the east line of Webster street in the City of Oakland.

The following is a general description of the work to be done and the materials to be furnished: taking up of the old wooden sewer between said points and excavating to the hard pan for a concrete foundation; placing the concrete foundation and constructing thereon a sewer of brick and cement of the dimensions corresponding with the present brick portion; and constructing two manholes and eight catch basins with lateral connection and conduit pipes, and in accordance with the plans and specifications on file in the office of the Board of Public Works, to which reference is hereby made for full particulars and description of said work and materials to be used.

The work done and materials furnished to be under the supervision of, and to the satisfaction of the City Engineer and Superintendent of Streets, and to the approval of the Board of Public Works.

Said work shall be commenced within 10 days, and shall be completed within 30 days after the signing of the contract.

All bids must be made upon the blank forms of the Board, which will be furnished upon application, by the Secretary.

All bids must be accompanied by a check certified by some responsible bank, drawn during the month of September, A. D. 1889, on or before the 10th day, made payable to the order of J. M. Brady, Clerk of the Council, for not less than ten per cent. of the proposal, which check shall be forfeited to the City of Oakland should the bidder receiving the award fail within 10 days to enter into a contract and furnish a good and sufficient bond in a sum not to exceed $5000, for the faithful performance of same.

The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Public Works.

Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AT the regular meeting of the City Council of the city of Oakland, held July 29th, 1889, Resolution No. 14,151 was adopted:

RESOLUTION NO. 14,151.

WHEREAS, The undersigned petitioners have this day made application to the Council of the City of Oakland for the franchise and right to construct, operate, and maintain a street railroad along certain streets of said city, which said application is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

OAKLAND, July 29th, 1889.

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Oakland: We, the undersigned, respectfully petition your honorable body for a franchise and right for ourselves and our associates and assigns to construct, lay down, operate, and maintain a street railroad, with tracks and cars and with necessary turnouts, switches, and turntables, over and along the following streets, to wit:

Commencing at the intersection of the center line of Broadway with the center line of Twelfth street in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, state of California; running thence westerly along Twelfth street to Pine street; thence southerly along Pine street to its intersection with Atlantic street; also from Twelfth street northerly through Wood street to Sixteenth street; thence westerly along Sixteenth street to the westerly end thereof; and to run cars thereon propelled by wire ropes running under the streets and street crossings and moved by stationary steam engines, and to carry passengers and freight for hire.

That said railroad tracks may be single or double.

That the rates of fare shall not exceed five cents for a single fare.

That said franchise and right may be granted for a term of fifty (50) years.

Respectfully,

E. F. PRESTON,
M. H. GROSSMAYER,
J. B. RANDOL,
EDWARD POLLITZ,
JAMES GILLOS.

Therefore, Resolved, That the Clerk of this Council be and he is hereby authorized and directed to cause a notice of said application to be published for twenty days in THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, a newspaper of general circulation published and printed daily in said city of Oakland; and the said Clerk shall in said notice specify the route along which it is proposed to construct such road; and said notice shall state that the Council of the City of Oakland offers to grant the franchise to the persons, company, or corporation that shall agree to pay at the expiration of five years after said railroad is completed, and thereafter semi-annually, the largest per centum of the gross receipts of such road according to a verified statement of the same.

Adopted July 29, 1889, by "Ayes," Messrs. Earl, Evans, Collins, Fawcett, Macdonald, McAvoy, Heckett, Brosnahan, Kirk, and President Camron—10. "Noes," Mr Wakefield—1.

W. W. CAMRON,
President of the Council.

A PIONEER'S DEATH.

Struck by a Train and Fatally Injured.

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., August 19.—David W. Vancourt, 73 years of age was knocked down by a train yesterday afternoon. He died at 6 P. M. from his injuries. Vancourt was a pioneer on this coast. He leaves a son and daughter here and relatives in San Francisco.

FIRE AND WATER.

One Dismantles a Cemetery and the Other Ends a Life.

SACRAMENTO, August 19.—The heavy brush fires which were raging south of Oroville last Saturday have been about extinguished. Much damage was done to farm fences. The fires swept through Oroville Cemetery on Saturday, destroying fences, trees, and every wooden structure in the Cemetery, blacking the tombstones, and damaging many.

Robert Dickenson, aged 60 years, a resident of Oroville, and father-in-law of D. H. Murray, Superintendent of the Citrus Association Orange Groves, was drowned in Feather river, near town while fishing Saturday. Dickenson was subject to dizzy spells and it is supposed that during one of these he fell into the river. The body was recovered Sunday morning a few hundred yards below the spot where he is supposed to have fallen in.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Nine People Perish in a Tenement House Fire.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Early this morning a fire broke out in the kitchen of a restaurant of a five-story tenement at 305 West Seventh avenue. Nine of the sixty odd occupants of the house lost their lives, and there is great wonder that many more did not perish. The dead are: William Glenmore, 60 years old, burned to death; Nellie McGeoghan, 4 years old, smothered; Mary Wells, 31 years old, smothered; Jane Wells, aged 4 years, smothered; Thomas Wells, aged 2 years, smothered; Bertha Tustin, 40 years of age, burned to death; William McKee, aged 47, burned to death; Jane Jeffery, 65 years old, smothered; an unknown woman, 45 years old, smothered. The injured are: William Glennan, 18 years old, badly burned; John Glennon, burned and injured. The building was occupied by thirteen families, who have been made temporarily homeless by fire. The flames did not do very much damage in the various apartments.

A HERO.

He Saves a Boy's Life, But Is Killed Himself.

SACRAMENTO, August 19.—James Hamilton Corwin, a man in the employ of E. L. Coons, fell from a wagon near Elk grove, at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and was run over, receiving injuries from the effects of which he died yesterday morning. The wagon was descending a hill when the front wheel went into a rut and Corwin and a boy were thrown to the ground. Corwin attempted to save the boy and was successful, but was himself caught beneath the wheel and terribly crushed. The deceased was a native of New York, aged 59 years.

ELECTRICITY ON A STRIKE.

Forest Fires and a Land Slide Cut Off Eastern News.

The following dispatch was received at three o'clock from the Associated Press Agency.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—To EDITOR TRIBUNE: Telegraph communication with the East has been interrupted all day. It is reported that a landslide has occurred on the Central route, between Ogden and Echo. Communication by the Northern route is broken by forest fires, and trouble is also experienced on the Southern lines. Can send nothing more today.

A SISTER'S PLEA.

She Wants a Judge to Change a Sentence.

August Collins, the young man who pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery and was sentenced by Judge Ellsworth to serve a term of five years imprisonment in Folsom prison, is still in the County Jail. He does not want to go to Folsom and is particularly anxious that the Judge shall change the place of imprisonment to San Quentin. For two days Collins' sister has been seeking an opportunity to have an interview with Judge Ellsworth to try and induce him to change his judgment and make the place of confinement San Quentin. The young woman says that she desires to visit her brother often while he is in the penitentiary, and if he is confined in Folsom she cannot visit him but seldom, owing to the long distance to travel and the expense incurred by the trip. It is not likely, however, that his Honor will change his decision although J. C. Martin says that it might be done under the law.

Gilmore Again on Deck.

J. S. Gilmore & Co., as per announcement gave a grand re-opening on Saturday evening last. A band of music was present, and Fay Butler delivered the opening address, and superintended the distribution of prizes. J. S. Gilmore & Co., had on display all the latest patterns in dress goods, ribbons etc. which made a very pretty night. J. S. Gilmore & Co., has now one of the largest and best lighted stores in the city of Oakland, and they desires to see all friends at their new store Corner Thirteenth and Washington streets, Oakland Cal.

He Saved My Life.

Some 18 months ago my health began to fail until I was confined to my bed. Some of the best medical skill of San Francisco treated me for enlargement of the liver. I failed so rapidly that my relations were summonsed to my bedside. When in that condition, and through the influence of Captain Fletcher's family of Oakland, Doctor Bluett of that city was telegraphed for, and the result was most favorable, as the Doctor diagnosed my case as chronic enlargment of the stomach. Without asking any questions he gave me a perfect history of my disease from the beginning down to that date, June 18, 1889. The treatment was began and I felt a great change inside of six hours. The second day I sat up, and inside of a week I resumed my work as bookkeeper for Gillman & Danforth's Coffee House. I am now enjoying splendid health.
